

For your thinking. . . .

"இறைவன் மனிதனுக்குச் சொன்னது கீதை, மனிதன் இறைவனுக்குச் சொன்னது திருவாசகம், மனிதன் மனிதனுக்குச் சொன்னது திருக்குறள்" -
Dr.S.Jayabarathi in an Introduction to Thirukkural

I read these above words on the internet. These words are saying.....

God told to Man is Gita, Man told to God is Thiruvagam, Man told to Man is Thirukkural.

It is a nice statement. We will think about these words.....

God told to Man is Gita

"The form you are seeing with your transcendental eyes cannot be understood simply by studying the Vedas, nor by undergoing serious penances, nor by charity, nor by worship. It is not by these means that one can see Me as I am."

"My dear Arjuna, only by undivided devotional service can I be understood as I am, standing before you, and can thus be seen directly. Only in this way can you enter into the mysteries of My understanding."

"My dear Arjuna, he who engages in My pure devotional service, free from the contaminations of fruitive activities and mental speculation, he who works for Me, who makes Me the supreme goal of his life, and who is friendly to every living being—he certainly comes to Me."

Bhagavad Gita 11:53-55

WE may feel difficult to live a life in this world such a way that we glorifying only the GOD's name, worship the ONLY GOD, do the good things to GOD according to his Words, without getting affection on the worldly things.

It may not be possible by our effort. But it is possible with God;s Grace.

The man himself told this clearly.....Let us read that....

Man told to God

Because He, Civan, within my thought abides,
By His grace alone, bowing before His feet,
With joyous thought, Civan's 'Ways of Old' I'll tell,
That thus my former 'deeds' may wholly pass. (20)

Thiruvagam 1:17-20

God give us knowledge to us. We should use that to understand God and worship and live the life for God. That is great benefit of our knowledge.

This is how the man told to man. Let us read that now.....

The man told to man

No fruit have men of all their studied lore,
Save they the 'Purely Wise One's' feet adore.
What profit have those derived from learning, who worship not the good feet of Him who is possessed of pure knowledge?

To know about God.....we read some of the words from "God told to Man", "Man told to God" and "The man told to man".

Now let us read some words which itself God

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only,[a] who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

In him was life, and that life was the light of men.

The true light that gives light to every man was coming into the world.

Holy Bible: John: 1:1,14,4,9.

Though things diverse from divers sages' lips we learn,

'Tis wisdom's part in each the true things to discern.

To discern the truth in every thing, by whomsoever spoken, is wisdom.
